SOMETIMES PEOPLE DO TERRIBLE THINGS TO EACH OTHER.

“When I was raped at four years old it was my fault, because I did not speak up. A pimp lied to me about a better life, and I believed him. It was my fault. For years I listened to the lies, but now I know the truth. It's not my fault. I am free, the chains are broken, and today I have a voice. I am strong, I have overcome, and never again will I be enslaved!

I am hope. I am joy. I am love. I am free!”

— Angela, Los Angeles (aged 15)
